How does Internet Accountability work?

Our Internet monitoring service scores websites visited for mature content and sends a summary report to a person you choose. This friend, spouse, parent or other person you select is your Accountability Partner, and they receive your reports by email or may view them online.

How does Internet Accountability work?

- 1 After signing up, download the software. Covenant Eyes Internet Accountability monitors all Internet use.

- 2 A Report is sent to an Accountability Partner you choose, such as a friend, parent or other trusted person. Reports show how the Web is used. Each website is scored for mature content.

Receive reports for your children or college student, too.

- 3 Your Accountability Partners then talk to you about the report. Or you talk with your kids about their report. It may be as simple as a quick email or as personal as a conversation.

- 4 Freedom. Removing the secrecy helps remove temptation. Surf your values and encourage others in your home and office to do the same.
